Sophie Meredith (RYLA candidate)

Sophie grew up in the Highlands where she went to Gibgate, then Frensham and then the University of Canberra to study physiotherapy. She is an extremely motivated 23 year old who has a passion to help others. She works part time as a physiotherapist in a hand therapy clinic in Bowral. As a hand physio, she feels she has to be creative as what she does includes dressing wounds as well as increasing mobility of hand joints. The rest of the time she is her father's bookkeeper. She is currently completing a Cert IV in bookkeeping which is a distraction from dealing with emotions in her usual occupation. Outside of work, she is a competitive fencer (épée) where she is currently rehabilitating herself to get back to national level after rupturing her Achilles tendon. She also loves cooking, is learning to sew and loves taking her Husky for walks or runs with her partner.

Sophie is looking forward to the RYLA week at Greenhills, ACT, where she hopes to develop necessary leadership skills and will speak to the club next year to relate what she has learnt.

Welfare

A note from Jim McAlpine

Phil Driscoll continues to be unwell but received his director's report. Thank you Phil. Carmel said that she would be available to answer phone calls and take messages for Phil, which he will appreciate. The home phone is 4869 2880 and the mobile is 0418 272 573.

Sargeant Malcolm Webber was in fine form at Wednesday's meeting although disheartened by the devaluing Australian dollar as he intends to travel to the States. I'm sure we all commiserate (not!!).
